

3/8 Mile Asphalt Speedway In Northern Indiana Saturday Night Racing At 7PM

Special Ticket Offer for Plymouth Speedway July 4 Fireworks Spectacular

The racing program set for this July 4 at the Plymouth Speedway is one of the biggest of the year. Management has announced a special offer that will make this event one of the lowest ticket priced events of the year.

In fact, the Adult ticket holder has two options. If you attended the HOSS Sprint show on June 27th, and still have the ticket stub, that can be used to receive $5 off for this Saturday, making the ticket price $7. Or you could print off the Flyer at the bottom of this page to receive $5, yes, $5 off. This is for Adult general admission only, and only 1 discount can apply. No coolers, but plastic and cans ok. Spectator Gates open at 4 PM

That's right ! $7 to see 5 Divisions, including a 100 Lap Late Model Feature, a Trailer Race, and a huge Fireworks display. The deal of the year.

Can second generation driver Tyler Roahrig take the Second Leg of the Triple Crown ? He needed the final lap of the race to get by Scott Ross for the big win in May. Others looking to win the top prize include Rich Boal, Brian Muick, Scott Ross, Ronnie Maynard, Adam Terry, and hometown favorite Micheal Thayer.

The other classes in action are the Sportsman with a variety of Feature winners including Lou Stremme, Mike Shewchuk, Rodney Smith, Derik Griffin, and last week's winner, John Marshall.

Winners in the Street Stocks have included Randy Pressler, Stephanie Scott, and Cory Lindsay.

The Mini Stocks, Dale Oliver took his first win with other winners Darin Harrell, Matt Norem, Kurt Gunkel, and Micheal Mast.

And for the FWD's, the Top Guns have been Kelton Kaechle, Eric Kiser, Robert Reed, and Bryant Ragsdale.

Plymouth Speedway is 4 mi. South of Plymouth on Old U.S. 31. Parking is free.

Games will be set up for Kids.

Times; Pits 1 PM, Spectator Gates 4PM, Racing 7 PM.
